

The Little Britches Youth Association (LBYA) has been benefiting the youth of Elbert, Douglas, El Paso, Arapahoe, Adams and other surrounding counties for over 50 years. Our longstanding presence in the community has allowed the organization to grow to a membership level of over 125 youth members.

LBYA is a non-profit organization, under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue code, run entirely by the parents, members and volunteers devoted to the promotion of junior rodeo and the continued support of our nation's youth. The aim and purpose of the organization is directed toward the interest of the western-minded youth of the nation.

LBYA holds 8 annual rodeos in Elbert, Colorado for cowboys and cowgirls ages 5 through 18. Points are accumulated throughout the 8-week series. We strive to build sportsmanship, responsibility and provide an enjoyable family pastime for everyone involved.

The highlight of our season and what each contestant eagerly looks forward to is our annual Awards Ceremony and Banquet. Each year we award the contestants with all-around awards. The awards consist of All-Around Championship saddles, buckles, tack and many other custom items. Individual Event winners are also awarded buckles and other championship items as the budget allows. Our ability to award more placings is contingent upon our annual budget. The generosity of our Sponsors is what allows us to provide more awards for more contestants.

The organization strives to keep rodeo costs low so that it is affordable to as many in the community as possible. The contestants use this sponsorship program to help offset the cost of the quality awards LBYA distributes. We welcome and appreciate the individuals or businesses that would like to support our youth.
